XI SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Lou Johnson (PRINCIPAL at Hoffmans Crossing)

Mr. Johnson welcomed the Board and gave some highlights of our new school facility at Hoffmans. He informed the Board that students are very excited

Maintenance of grounds: activities are going well

Academic activities: covering all areas / 40 minute periods / changing classes

Educational activities:

Exploring environmental programs offered at other districts: gardening, mulching, grounds maintenance, pond projects (water & vegetation sampling, fishing skills)

Connected with Equine organization: services extended to us for our students to learn how to tack, groom and clean stall. In return, our students will receive riding lessons

Roxey Ballet expanded to Hoffman location: providing dance program while infusing curriculum of science, math and history. Hoping to extend the program to surrounding districts

Students picked apples & made apple cider. Students made donation of apples to local church

Projects related to (2) donkey's (Babe & Mikie): Students getting familiar with them as well as them with us. Learning to care for animals as the weather changes

Open house: went well, with representatives from several districts. Hope to receive additional students and expand cooperative opportunities with the use of our property.

Direct TV program to be introduced shortly

DISCUSSION: Cameras

Cameras are in all West Orange buses. We are moving toward getting them in all at Glen Gardner buses
 There have three (3) cameras, including one on the arm and track speed
 Cameras are from angel trax and we obtain routine monitoring / servicing.
